it's a new look

The Clarence Scene is the latest in news and lifestyle for the Clarence Valley, with information on gardening, health, motoring, travel and much more.

Published on high quality paper as a centre liftout on the last week of each month, Clarence Scene provides advertisers with the opportunity of advertising to their market niche gaining you exposure in full colour to a loyal readership of over 40,000 people.

The Clarence Valley Review is the highest circulating and fastest growing weekly publication in the Clarence Valley with a total circulation of 19,000 that is home delivered, fully plastic wrapped every week to over 15,250 homes.

Our newspaper will get your business message to every corner of the valley from Glenreagh in the south to Jackadery in the West, Woodburn in the north and everywhere in between including Iluka, Maclean, Yamba, Ulmarra, Grafton, South Grafton and Clarence.

We also supply complimentary design services to give your ad a professional presence.
